

MOVERS & SHAKERS

Law

Frank Turney, of the Law Offices of Frank E. Turney P.A. in Catonsville, will receive Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service's Ten Year Volunteer Award on Oct. 15 at MVLIS' Celebrate Pro Bono awards reception. This award is given annually to volunteers who have taken at least one pro bono case from MVLIS every year for the last 10 years.

Laurie Goon, an associate in the Baltimore office of Duane Morris LLP, was recognized by Living Classrooms Foundation as one of its Rising Stars for 2014. Partner Rob Hopkins, also in the firm's Baltimore office, serves on the foundation's board of trustees and nominated Goon for the award. Founded in 1985, Living Classrooms Foundation seeks to strengthen communities and inspire children and young adults through hands-on education and job training, using urban, natural and maritime resources as "living classrooms." Its annual Rising Stars list honors young professionals based on outstanding professional and personal achievements and philanthropic efforts.

Nonprofits

BILL ATKINSON

Stocks in the Future has named Bill Atkinson to its board of directors. Atkinson is senior vice president of Weber Shandwick's Baltimore office. He specializes in strategic communications, crisis communications and media relations. Areas of expertise include corporate environmental issues, financial institutions, manufacturing, law firms and labor relations. Atkinson is a former business columnist and financial reporter for The Baltimore Sun. He has more than 20 years of experience in journalism. Stocks in the Future is a nonprofit working to improve the attendance and performance of middle school students in underserved areas who have high absentee rates. Through a partnership with Johns Hopkins University and support from the Bernstein Family Foundation, it has developed a curriculum that teaches students financial literacy skills with a focus on investing.

Public relations

CATHERINE RINALDO

Himmelrich PR, a Baltimore-based public relations firm, has hired Catherine Rinaldo as an account associate. She will support the media relations, promotions and marketing activities for client accounts.

LET'S HEAR FROM YOU

We want to hear about your promotion, appointment, new job or award. Submissions for our Movers & Shakers column can only be made online at <http://thedailyrecord.com/movers/> dent, sales and marketing.

Health care

Shyamasundaran Kottihil, Ph.D., an expert in infectious disease, has joined the University of Maryland School of Medicine faculty as co-director of the Institute of Human Virology's Clinical Research Unit and associate director

SHYAMASUNDARAN KOTTIHIL

Nonprofits

Stocks in the Future has named Katrina Foster to its board of directors. Foster is the principal at Elmer A. Henderson: A Johns Hopkins Partnership School. Stocks in the Future is a nonprofit working to improve the attendance and performance of middle school students in underserved areas who have high absentee rates. Through a partnership with Johns Hopkins University and support from the Bernstein Family Foundation, it has developed a curriculum that teaches students financial literacy skills with a focus on investing.